

Akin Gump and GaffneyCline Host “The Coming Decommissioning Wave in Asia Pacific” Webinar

Mar 30, 2021

Reading Time : 1 min

The program provided an overview of decommissioning in Asia Pacific and identified key issues/challenges facing decommissioning projects. Akin Gump provided a comparison of regulatory frameworks applicable to decommissioning in Australia against other key jurisdictions in Southeast Asia. The speakers also shared their views on the lessons that the APAC region can learn from other jurisdictions as well as options for mitigating risks on decommissioning projects (legal, commercial and technical). They also discussed the opportunities for investors and service providers.

Energy partner Paul Greening and associate Euan Strachan were joined by GaffneyCline’s Bill Cline (Executive Director), Andrew Duncan (Principal Advisor – Facilities) and Phillip Solomon (Principal Advisor – Commercial).
